FULL CIRCLE FARM THERAPEUTIC HORSEMANSHIP RECEIVES $8,050 QUALITY OF LIFE GRANT FROM CHRISTOPHER & DANA REEVE FOUNDATION FOR FCFTH EQUINE PARTNER

NEWPORT NH – (JANUARY 14, 2022) –Full Circle Farm Therapeutic Horsemanship is proud to announce that it has been awarded $8,050 as part of the Christopher & Dana Reeve Foundation National Paralysis Resource Center (NPRC) 2021 2nd Cycle Direct Effect Quality of Life grants. Sixty-seven grants totaling $1,403,071 were awarded. The Quality of Life Grants Program supports nonprofit organizations that empower individuals living with paralysis. Since the Quality of Life Grants Program's inception, more than 3,490 grants totaling over $36 million have been awarded. Funding for this program was made possible through a cooperative agreement with the Administration for Community Living (ACL grant #90PRRC0006-01-00).

The Reeve Foundation National Paralysis Resource Center has several grants under the Quality of Life program awarding grants in different category areas, varying in different amounts. The Direct Effect Quality of Life grants program funds organizations up to $25,000 to support a wide range of projects and activities that will impact individuals living with paralysis and their families.

"This cycle of Direct Effect grant projects offers a robust and impactful addition to our Quality of Life grants program," said Mark Bogosian, Director, Quality of Life Grants Program, Reeve Foundation. "Grant funds are supporting wide-ranging projects including accessible community areas, adaptive sports and fitness & wellness, consumer education, peer mentoring & support, and transportation. These projects represent the true essence of our Quality of Life grants program by fostering inclusion, involvement and community engagement, and promoting health and wellness for those affected by paralysis."

Full Circle Farm Therapeutic Horsemanship will use the grant to acquire new equine partners for the benefit of those in the program.

FCFTH is honored to receive this generous award which will allow them to retire a few well deserving equine partners and acquire new partners to continue their mission of providing the benefits of Equine Assisted Activities and Services to individuals living with special needs. Enlisting the power of our equine partners, dedicated volunteers, and staff along with the generosity of donors, we provide services in a safe, professional, caring, and enjoyable environment.

FCFTH adheres to the highest professional standards of the EAS industry while engaging the connection with our remarkable equine partners. We seek to inspire, encourage, and enable the development of social, emotional, physical, educational, and equestrian skills, for the benefit of body, mind, and spirit as the participant achieves his or her incredible potential.

With many thanks to the Reeve Foundation FCFTH will continue to be able to provide these services with our Equine Partners.

About the Reeve Foundation:

*The Christopher & Dana Reeve Foundation is dedicated to curing spinal cord injury by funding innovative research and improving the quality of life for individuals and families impacted by paralysis. By uniting the brightest minds in the field, we are working tirelessly to accelerate scientific discovery across the field of spinal cord research by investing in labs across the globe. Additionally, through a cooperative agreement with the Administration for Community Living, the Reeve Foundation's National Paralysis Resource Center (NPRC) promotes the health, well-being, and independence of people living with paralysis, providing comprehensive information, resources, and referral services assisting over 100,000 individuals and families since its launch in 2002. The Reeve Foundation is committed to elevating our community's voices and needs to achieve greater representation and independence. We meet all 20 of the Better Business Bureau's standards for charity accountability and hold the BBB's Charity Seal.
